

Tree Planting Ceremony:

Plant a tree together with a little dirt from your childhood home. An option is to have the parents water it to symbolize the way they have been an influence in teaching and encouraging love. After the ceremony, take the potted tree, and transplant it at the newlywed's home to symbolize putting down roots, longevity, and strength within this marriage.