

Unity Sand Ceremony:

A symbolic blending of two different-colored sands into a single vessel. The blending of two different beings, into a single, inseparable unit that is their marriage, the joining of their lives. Hard as it would be to separate those grains of sand, that's how difficult it is to separate these two people. Multiple sand vessels can also be combined to include God or children.